DECLARATION Of Prop 65

Proposition 65 is a California law that has been in effect since 1986 to promote clean drinking water and to require businesses to provide a clear and reasonable warning before exposing individuals to consumer products containing chemicals known to the state to cause cancer, birth defect, or other reproductive harm. Proposition 65's formal title is "the safe drinking water and toxic enforcement act of 1986" It is administered by the California Environmental Protection Agency's Office of Environmental Health Hazard Assessment (OEHHA).

The law requires that no person in the course of doing business knowingly and intentionally expose an individual to a chemical known to the state of California to cause cancer or reproductive toxicity without first giving a clear and reasonable warning. An official list of these substances is published and updated annually by the Office of Environmental Health Hazard Assessment (OEHHA).

We hereby declare that some products supplied by Auto Bolt unintentionally contain chemicals, identified by the state of California as a cause for cancer, birth defects or other reproductive harm listed in the current revision of the California's Safe Drinking Water and Toxic Enforcement Act of 1986 (Proposition 65).
